Dialogues on Human Rights

This series of talks sponsored by ICJ Canada will give local ICJ members and the Ottawa human rights community at large the opportunity to hear from people working in the area of human rights in very different ways that invite discussion and exchange.

November 2, 2011

Professor Ed Ratushny, Faculty of Law University of Ottawa, author of The Conduct of Public Inquiries (Irwin Law)

The Royal Commission as a Champion of Liberty

February 1, 2012

Madam Justice Maria Linares De Sousa, Ontario Superior Court

International Rights of the Child: The Use of the Hague Convention in Canadian Courts

March 21, 2012

Laura B. Stewart, Partner, Gowling Lafleur Henderson

Mental Illness in Ontario: Rights and Human Rights

All the talks will be held from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the Jury Assembly Room of the Ottawa Court House at 161 Elgin Street.

Because the talks will be held in the courthouse after hours, it is necessary that an attendance list be prepared before each talk. Series ticket holders will automatically be registered. Others will need to register by noon on the Tuesday before each talk.

To reserve series tickets or to register for individual talks, please call (613) 237-2925 ext. 125 and leave your name and phone number or send this information to patw@cba.org.
