Dialogues on Human Rights

This series of talks sponsored by ICJ Canada will give local ICJ members and the Ottawa human rights community at large the opportunity to hear from people working in the area of human rights in very different ways that invite discussion and exchange.

SEPTEMBER 23, 2009 - PROFESSOR ERROL MENDES

"The Immunities of High State Officials under the Statute of the International Criminal Court: The Case of the ICC Arrest Warrant for President al-Bashir of Sudan"

FEBRUARY 3, 2010 - BRIAN A. CRANE, Q.C.

"Human Rights and the Practice of Law: Encounters in the North"

APRIL 28, 2010 - DR. PAT WHITING

"We're All Humans Here: Humans, Human Rights, and the Literary Imagination"

All the talks will be held from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the Jury Assembly Room of the Ottawa Court House at 161 Elgin Street.

Because the talks will be held in the courthouse after hours, it is necessary that an attendance list be prepared before each talk. Series ticket holders will automatically be registered. Others will need to register by noon on the Tuesday before each talk.

To reserve series tickets or to register for individual talks, please call (613) 237-2925 ext. 125 and leave your name and phone number or send this information to patw@cba.org.
